Great Performers with Marc Courtade

The Stunning

Paulette Goddard

Friday, September 15th at 2:00 PM

Paulette Goddard was adept at playing both sophisticated comedy and sultry melodrama. She was much publicized for her friendships with many notable figures; her marriages to Charlie Chaplin, Burgess Meredith and Erich Maria Remarque and her glamorous life style. Many of her films remain entertaining and showcase her beauty. Join us for a look at the life and career of a one of a kind film actress.

Dick Van Dyke

America's Funny Man

Friday, October 20th at 2:00 PM

Dick Van Dyke has been one of America's favorite performers for almost 60 years. He rose to fame on Broadway in Bye Bye Birdie, then starred in The Dick Van Dyke Show for five seasons. He made many popular films including Bye Bye Birdie, Mary Poppins and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. In spite of several attempts at retirement, he has worked on stage, screen and television ever since. This talk will highlight the talents of a much loved performer.

Calendar of Convenience

Holiday Celebrations:

How to Balance Traditions & Trends

with Carol Cott Gross

Monday, September 18th at 2:00 PM

Holidays are not what they used to be. We have Skype seders, virtual Easter bunnies and FaceTime turkeys. Join Carol as she offers advice on how to minimize holiday stress, maximize the fun and acknowledge the relief and regret of seniors when the children begin to host the holidays. She will also discuss Long Island's invention of The Harvest Holiday...an imitation of Thanksgiving, celebrated in October because so many grandparents are Florida snowbirds and aren't here in November! Come for an enjoyable afternoon.

Board of Trustees Meetings

Art Lectures

Abstract Art by Women Artists
(1945 - 1970)

with Professor Thomas Germano

Tuesday, September 26th at 2:00 PM

Societal shifts in the post WWII era made it possible for more women to work professionally as artists, yet their work was often dismissed in the male dominated art world. This visual lecture, inspired by the MoMA's Making Space exhibit, will include the works of Lee Krasner, Joan Mitchell, Lygia Clark, Magdalena Abakanowicz and many more.

An Afternoon at the Barnes Museum

with Louise Cella Caruso

Monday, October 23rd at 2:00 PM

Dr. Albert Barnes assembled one of the world's most important collections of fine art. Join Louise for a private tour as she brings you across the threshold into the gallery to view select works of impressionists, post-impressionists and early modern artists.

Casanova and the Seduction of Europe

with Professor Thomas Germano

Tuesday, October 31st at 2:00 PM

Giacomo Casanova, renowned in modern times for his amorous pursuits, lived in Italy, France and England. His travels also took him to the Ottoman Empire and to meet Catherine the Great in Saint Petersburg, Russia. This visual presentation of paintings, sculpture, works on paper, furnishings, porcelains, silver and period costume will bring the 18th century world that Casanova lived in to life.
