FOUR STAR LIBRARY by LIBRARY JOURNAL
Virtual The Passionate Reader

An Afternoon Book Group
with Mary Hirdt

Thursday, October 7th at 1:00 PM

Mother Land
by Leah Franqui

A Depression Era woman confronts a wrenching choice between fighting for the Dust Bowl ravaged land she loves in Texas or pursuing an uncertain future in California.

Thursday, November 4th at 1:00 PM

The Paris Library
by Janet Skeslien Charles

This book is based on the true World War II story of the heroic librarians at the American Library in Paris. It’s an unforgettable story of romance, friendship, family and the power of literature to bring us together.

Virtual Talk About Books

An Evening Book Discussion
with Fran Cohen

Tuesday, September 21st at 7:00 PM

The Midnight Library
by Matt Haig

In the space between life and death is a magical library where one gets to explore new lives. This thought provoking, charming book is a celebration of life’s possibilities. Which would you choose?

Tuesday, October 19th at 7:00 PM

Fifty Words for Rain
by Asha Lemmie

Growing up in post World War II Japan, a half Japanese, half African American young woman lives many lives in her quest to be accepted and free.

Virtual Profiles

Starting with Tarzan of the Apes and A Princess of Mars, Edgar Rice Burroughs went on to create two of the most enduring “pulp heroes” in American literature. This program explores some of the two dozen Tarzan stories and eleven Carter stories, with an emphasis on why these tales still resonate with modern audiences.

The Big One

Earthquakes, Volcanoes, Tsunamis

Monday, October 11th at 2:00 PM

We will look at some of the major seismic and volcanic events of the last few thousand years, not only in the Western USA, but around the Pacific Rim. We’ll separate fear-filled hype from science-based facts and discuss the causes and how tectonic movement changes our globe across time.

In Person & Virtual Great Performers

with Marc Courtade

Unflappable Heroine

Claudette Colbert

Friday, September 17th at 2:00 PM

Ms. Colbert was a versatile stage and film star with a flair for light comedy that cheered audiences. She could appear worldly and sophisticated, yet be down to earth which helped sustain her career of more than 60 films and many stage appearances. Watching her in her classic screen roles is still a joy to behold.

Charlton Heston

Epic Movie Star

Friday, October 15th at 2:00 PM

Charlton Heston appeared in almost 100 films in his 60-year acting career, but is remembered for his monumental portrayals of Moses, Ben-Hur and Michelangelo. A physically imposing man, he had a touch of the rugged American in his roles and as an effective off-screen spokesman for the causes in which he believed. This talk will examine the man and his career, focusing on his passionate spirit and his larger than life performances.

The Medici: Portraits & Politics, 1512 to 1570
with Professor Thomas Germano
Friday, September 10th at 2:00 PM

Florence, Italy experienced political instability when it was transformed from a republic of elected officials into a dukedom ruled by the Medici family. Cosimo I de' Medici, Duke of Florence in 1537, cleverly used art, currency, architecture and portraiture as a political tool. Paintings, sculpture, medals, drawings, manuscripts and armor figure prominently in this lecture by the period’s most celebrated artists.

Three Generations of Wyeth Artists
with Professor Thomas Germano
Friday, October 8th at 2:00 PM

For over a century the Wyeth family has been recognized for creating captivating works of art. The Wyeth tradition and the Brandywine School are among the most enduring and celebrated legacies in all of American art. This lecture will look at works by N.C. Wyeth (1882-1945), and his three children artists. Most notable were his youngest son Andrew (1917-2009), an important realist painter, famous for Christina’s World and The Helga Paintings, and Andrew’s son Jamie (1946-) who created portraits of Andy Warhol, John F. Kennedy, Rudolf Nureyev and more.

Virtual Controversial Public Art in NYC with Sylvia Laudien-Meo, Museum Educator, Tour Guide, College Professor
Thursday, October 14th at 2:30 PM

Controversial Public Art works have been under attack, specifically during 2020. Most are historic figures associated with colonialism or racism. Many of these sculptures have been either toppled or officially removed while new ones will be commissioned to celebrate some of the many women who made important contributions to our history. There are many interesting cases where Public Art has been debated, dismissed, moved, discarded, redesigned, renamed or shipped abroad throughout the years.
