A Message from the Director

Dear Jericho Residents,

The Library Board, staff and I would like to thank the community for approving the budget for the fiscal year 2019/20 on Tuesday, May 21st. We were, once again, within the NYS allowable tax cap.

We would like to congratulate Gayle Dolowich on her election and welcome Thomas Wassel on his appointment to the Library Board of Trustees.

A Special Note of Thanks

David Diamond, Library Board President, is resigning from the Board of Trustees after serving with distinction for over 25 years. David's dedication, knowledge and guidance will be missed by myself, the Trustees and staff. I join with Kwan Cheung, Denise Cole, Gloria Jacobson and Edwin Smith in thanking David for his service to the community and in wishing David many years of leisure enjoyment.

We also want to thank Edwin Smith for his invaluable time on the Board.

Sincerely,

Christina Brenner, Director

Great Performers with Marc Courtade

The Extraordinary Audra McDonald
Friday, July 19th at 2:00 PM
Audra McDonald is an American actress and singer known for her work on the Broadway stage. She has won six Tony Awards, the most by any performer. Her performances show an unparalleled breadth and versatility, from Bess in Porgy and Bess to Billie Holiday in Lady Day at Emerson’s Bar and Grill. Her work on television has earned her an Emmy Award and her recordings two Grammy Awards. She continues to push boundaries and expand the range of her artistry, making her one of the most respected performers of our time.

The Independent Robert Redford
Friday, August 16th at 2:00 PM
Robert Redford recently announced his retirement from acting after almost 60 years. He began on television in the late 1960s, starred on Broadway and then became one of the most successful film actors of the ‘70s and ‘80s in movies like Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, The Sting and Out of Africa. He also directed and produced films, including Ordinary People for which he won the Academy Award as Best Director. He is a champion of environmental causes and founder of the Sundance Institute, home of the Sundance Film Festival for independent films. This look at his life and career will show the reasons Redford is still a major star, even in retirement.

Irving Berlin’s Annie Get Your Gun is one of the best-loved musicals of Broadway’s Golden Age. It tells the story of sharpshooter Annie Oakley, who starred in Buffalo Bill’s Wild West Show, and her tempestuous romance with fellow sharpshooter Frank Butler. Acclaimed director Sarna Lapine will bring a fresh, modern approach to the story, incorporating elements from Dorothy Fields’ original book to create the strongest and most revolutionary Annie Oakley you’ve ever seen. This musical includes such beloved songs as There’s No Business Like Show Business, Anything You Can Do, and I Got the Sun in the Morning which will be performed by a country western, bluegrass band.

Andrew Wyeth is one of America’s distinguished painters. His art is rich and diverse, seemingly tranquil yet vibrates eerily with death, secrecy and sensuality. This illustrated lecture looks at the watercolor paintings and meticulous egg temperas of Wyeth’s world with the rolling hills of Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania and the rugged coast of Cushing, Maine, Wyeth’s intimate family and his immediate neighbors.

Here’s the Buzz . . .
Thursday, August 1st at 5:00 PM
Nearly 80% of all flowering plants are pollinated by insects like bees, and without them, many of these plant populations would decline. It’s easy to see just how important these pollinators are. Learn more facts about these amazing insects and how we can help them.

Code with Alice
Friday, August 2nd at 4:00 PM
Alice, inspired by Lewis Carroll, author of Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland makes the fundamentals of computer science fun and attainable. Let your imagination soar while effectively grasping skills needed for the future.

Macramé
Wednesday, August 28th at 7:00 PM
Macramé is a form of textile produced using knotting techniques rather than weaving or knitting. Learn this craft during this program and bring your finished project home.
The Board of Trustees would like to make the community aware that starting July 1, 2019 the Jericho Public Library will no longer offer free copies from the public computers.

Can’t find the book you’re looking for?

Ask at the Reference Desk and we will do our best to get it for you!

The Library will be accepting donations of patrons’ gently used hardcover books, CDs and DVDs to be sold at our Annual Book Sale.

Dates: Mondays, July 1, August 5, September 9, October 7 ONLY

When: 9:30 AM to 8:30 PM

- Please leave donations beneath the overhang in the back of the library on the JPL Donation Cart
- Donated items will become the property of the Jericho Public Library.
- Use of these items is at the sole discretion of the Library.
