

LACTATION BREAKS POLICY

The Jericho Public Library will provide break time during the work day to employees who are nursing in order for them to express breast milk. Employees who are nursing may take advantage of this break time policy for up to three years after the birth of the employee's child. The Library will provide a private location for lactation breaks. Please inform your supervisor or the Director of your desire to take such breaks. No employee will be subject to discrimination for exercising her rights under this policy.
